KOHALA PERSONALS.

KOHALA, December 8.—While Miss Philani Jones is away in Honolulu on account of her health her place is being filled by Miss Evelyn Van Deerlin.
On Friday evening of last week, Mrs. E. E. Olding entertained about thirty friends at a musicale. Mrs. John Hind sang two solos with violin obligato. Misses Walker and Hughes sang a duet. Mr. Olding and Mr. Paton sang solos. The chief feature of the evening was the zither playing by Mr. Schumacher, a young Austrian, now residing in Wailanae.
Mrs. John Hind gave an informal musical at her home Wednesday night. Mr. Schumacher played both violin and zither solos. Captain Austin of the North favored the company with a reading from Shakespeare's Richard III. The Scotch people present delighted the others with the Highland fling which was followed by an impromptu cake walk.
Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Bell entertained their relatives and a few friends at Thanksgiving dinner.
Miss Mary Gardner of Kohala Seminary is suffering from a severely sprained ankle.
A family reunion and a few friends at Dr. B. D. Bonds numbered twenty-nine.

NICARAGUA CANAL.

An Extension of Time Not to be Granted.
MANAGUA (Nicaragua), November 6.—The Government of Nicaragua has refused to grant a time extension to the Maritime Canal Company, but agrees to accept arbitration as to the concession granted to Eyre & Cragin. It is required that the arbitrators be citizens, and that the process be conducted under the laws of Nicaragua enacted subsequent to the granting of the concession. The agent of the canal company protests against these conditions and declares that the arbitration clause in the company's concession gives full liberty for the selection of arbitrators to the state and the company.

INJUNCTION DENIED.

One Phase of the Clark-T. B. Murray Case Decided.
In the matter of Thomas G. Clark vs. T. B. Murray, specific performance, at al. Judge Stanley on Saturday denied a temporary injunction on condition that defendant file a bond in the sum of $250 and bargain to deliver to plaintiff all painting he may have in his absolute control.
Sometime ago plaintiff obtained a verbal lease of defendant for the upper floor of his shop on King street. One of the conditions was that Murray was to give him all of his painting. Plaintiff claims that Murray has not complied with this part of the agreement.

HISSED IN PARIS.

NEW YORK, November 29.—A cable to the Sun from London says: Twelve First Tennessee Volunteers, including Lieutenant Stackley, arrived in London today. These men, who are all from Clarksville, Tenn., left Manila on October 6th on their way home. They came via Nagasaki and the Suez canal. They will sail for home on the American line steamship St. Louis on December 2d.
The American volunteers had an exciting experience on the Boulevard Montmartre, Paris. The Parisians mistook the Americans in their khaki uniforms for Englishmen and a howling mob surrounded their hotel and threatened them with violence. Some one shouted: "Americans." The mob did not appear to regard Americans in much more favorable light than Englishmen, but sullenly disappeared.

KHALIFA INVITES DEATH.

CAIRO, December 1.—Officers from the Sudan who have arrived here say that when General Wingate's force overtook the Khalifa the latter tried to outflank the Anglo-Egyptians, but failed. Seeing his position was hopeless, the Khalifa bade his omir stay with him and die. He then spread a sheep skin on the ground and sat down on it with the omir on each side of him.
The Khalifa was found shot in the head, heart, arms and legs, and the omirs were lying dead beside him. The members of his bodyguard were all dead in front of them. General Wingate's force swept over them without recognizing the Khalifa and his omirs, but they were identified later.

NEW HACK RULE.

Minister Young's hack order practically restores the old situation regarding vehicles off their stands. Except when waiting for a customer a hack can not stop anywhere except on its appointed station.
